Food: Pinot Noir is a wine that can hold its own with most dishes . Enjoy it with your favourite duck or chicken dishes . Have a glass with some good cheese and crusty bread

This pinot is pressed in whole bunches to ensure flavour and integrity of the fruit. The wine holds lovely red and black cherry complemented with earthy tones. The nose shows a fresh violet lift with a spicy complexity on the finish. Soft length on the palate in balance with fine tannins to give it definition and structure.

Mike Press Pinot Noir is an elegant wine with soft dark fruit and a fresh violet lift. This wine has a spicy complexity on the finish, a great example of an expectational Pinot Noir.
